

THE ONLY PLACE YOU CAN GET

WILSON HEATERS

THE BEST AIR-TIGHT MADE
IS AT

Buck's Cash Hardware

Leader in Low Prices

The Tribune.

HENDRICKS & CO., Publishers.

Advertisements to appear in THE TRIBUNE must be in before Tuesday noon to insure their appearance in the issue of that week.

Plymouth, Ind., October 22, 1903.

LOCAL NEWS

Henry Wenninger visited South Bend Monday.

John R. Jones is transacting business in Ohio this week.

Richard M. Johnson, of South Bend, spent Sunday in Plymouth.

Miss Fay Dunham, of South Bend, spent Sunday in Plymouth.

Mrs. Emmons, of Argos, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Mrs. C. Miller, who has been visiting here returned to Macy Monday.

Miss Emma Montgomery has gone to South Bend for a visit of a week.

Rollo B. Oglesbee, of Laporte, transacted business in Plymouth Monday.

E. P. Smith, of Warsaw, visited over Sunday with friends in Plymouth.

Circuit court convened Monday. The docket is somewhat larger than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stillson, of Hammond, are visiting the family of J. D. Fields.

Mrs. Dr. McKee, of South Bend, is visiting Mrs. J. A. Lombard, on South Michigan street.

Miss Harriet Bissell, who teaches in the school of Columbia City, spent Sunday at home.

The Marshall county Farmers' institute will be held in Plymouth, January 14th and 15th.

Mrs. George Cox has gone to Indianapolis and Lafayette for a visit of two or three weeks.

Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Reubelt, of Chicago, are visiting relatives and friends in Plymouth.

Andrew Peterson wife and daughter, of Donaldson, are visiting in South Bend this week.

Mrs. B. F. Barr and Miss Mary Harker, of Argos, attended the funeral of Mrs. Leedy Sunday.

Gideon Logan has sold his store at Teegarden and sent in his resignation as postmaster at that place.

Mrs. Rebecca Nation, who has been the guest of friends in this city, returned to South Bend Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Miller, of Walnut township, visited her mother, Mrs. Emmons in this city over Sunday.

There are now but 745 prisoners at the state prison at Michigan City, the lowest number in several years.

More than 5,000 boys in Illinois grew corn under the direction of the Illinois Farmers' Institute this year.

Willett and Gray estimate the production of sugar from the new American beet crop of 1903 at 235,000 tons.

Ephraim Leedy and family, of Pierceton, visited over Sunday with the family of Jacob Leedy, southwest of Plymouth.

Mrs. Teeters, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. I. Campbell in this city, returned to her home at Davis Monday.

A new member of the Serbian cabinet is named Gen. Greasevitch. They are doing all they can to prevent friction over there.

Messrs. Charles and Schuyler Rosenbury, M.L.S., Shearer and Martindale, went to Donaldson Monday to work on the new school house.

Jerry Frush, of Warsaw, reports the yield of apples on a single tree to have been 51 bushels, every one of them grown on the one tree.

Heman and Eli Bowles, Mrs. Edith Berry and Mrs. Ella Hammond were here Sunday to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Maude Leedy.

Laporte county produced almost twice as many pounds of butter in 1903 as any other county in Indiana. Statistics give it 2,035,551 pounds. Elkhart county is second with 1,368,811.

Lewis Paul and his mother, Mrs. Jolly, are visiting in Walkerton.

Nothing of general interest has transpired in circuit court since Monday.

M. L. Brewer, trustee of Walnut township, was a Plymouth visitor yesterday.

Thomas Seantling, of Crawfordville, has been visiting in Plymouth this week.

W. M. Sherland, of North township, took in the North Dakota excursion Tuesday.

Mr. Buck, of LaPorte, visited friends and transacted business in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Snowberger, of Walkerton, visited her father, Henry Aukerman, in this city yesterday.

George B. Lindsay came down from Ligonier yesterday for a visit of a few days in this city, Rochester and Bourbon.

Mrs. S. W. Jackson of this city and Mrs. Clemens, of Michigan City, are visiting relatives and friends in Warsaw.

Mrs. Creviston, of South Bend, who has been visiting friends in this city went to Muncie for a visit before returning home.

Sophia street is paved and the work of paving Center street from Laporte street to the planing mill will commence at once.

Rev. A. H. Zilmer has gone to Hamilton county to hold a series of meetings that will continue two weeks or more.

Charles Kanarr now has his saw mill in operation at Lapaz and expects to do a great deal of custom work this fall and winter.

Lieut. Gov. Gilbert is so badly afflicted with rheumatism at Battle Creek sanitarium that he has lost the use of both hands.

The Pennsylvania railroad has paid Daniel Haag $1,500 for injuries received by him while in the employ of the company a few months ago.

A telegram from Springfield, Missouri, announces the birth of a nine pound girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kloefer yesterday morning.

Fred Borton, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in Plymouth by the way of the Lake Shore yesterday morning, going to Bourbon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Erwin.

There were four new arrivals at the county farm this week, and Superintendent Krueger now reports 48 persons whom the county is caring for at the infirmary.

Mrs. J. A. Yockey and Mrs. J. S. Harsch arrived Tuesday evening from Denver, Colorado, to visit their mother, Mrs. C. W. Stansbury, and other relatives in this city.

Mrs. Davis, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. C. A. Brown and family, at their beautiful home on the south side, for several weeks, returned to her home at Granville, O., yesterday.

Amos T. Whitman, who was taken to the northern prison Tuesday, gave his occupation as a teacher. He is an educated gentlemanly old man and seemed entirely out of place in the role of a horse thief.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thayer, Mr. Young, Mrs. John W. Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hume, Mrs. John W. Parks and several others went to Bourbon to attend the funeral of Mrs. William Erwin yesterday.

William Hively, a former resident of the vicinity of Walkerton, who went to Kansas twenty-seven years ago and has not been back since until this week. He visited his sister Mrs. John Kentschler in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. Kate Deviney, who has been an inmate of the county of the county infirmary for many years is at the point of death. He people were pioneers of Marshall county and she has been a resident of this county over sixty years.

Mrs. L. S. Smith accompanied by her youngest son, Paul, has returned to Delphi having attended the missionary convention. Mrs. Smith was a resident of Plymouth five years and her hundreds of friends hoped she would make a longer visit.

The funeral of little Helen Kendall, who died in Chicago, Monday, was held at the Kendall residence in this city at 10 o'clock yesterday, conducted by Rev. C. A. Brooke. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Kendall have the sympathy of many friends.

At the great council of Improved Order of Red Men at Indianapolis this week the report of the great chief of records showed the fraternity to be in the best of condition. There are now 228 tribes in Indiana, 27 of them having been instituted during the last year.

The proprietor of this paper had a wheel stolen from his porch on the evening of August 28. It was traced to South Bend and Mr. Hendricks got the wheel Monday. The police of South Bend certainly showed their efficiency in recovering the stolen property and Mr. McWeeny, the chief and the other members of the police force, are perfect gentlemen. Howard Schultz, of Argos, stole the wheel and sold it to a second hand store at South Bend. His whereabouts is at present unknown.

According to late statistics some one dies in London every minute and a quarter of the twenty-four hours, but a child is born every forty seconds.

G. N. Hupp one of the oldest residents of Bourbon, stopped in Plymouth on his way to Indianapolis as a delegate to the state meeting of Red Men.

Rev. Mr. Lineberry, who resides near this city, is the president of the M. P. organization in Indiana and is visiting churches in eastern Indiana this week.

Twenty-nine Indiana counties sold over 30,000 hogs each in 1902. Montgomery county heads the list with 75,255. Randolph and Rush were close seconds.

It is understood that many men in New York are now wearing corsets. They are probably listed as "men" simply because the women would object to any other classification.

B. W. Healy, Harry Buck, John Wolford, Sheriff Bondurant, Oliver Soice and William O'Keefe left for Independence, Kansas, Tuesday to see their second oil well shot.

Mrs. E. L. Shipley, of Youngstown, Ohio, has returned home after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. D. B. Martin. Her mother, Mrs. Daugherty, went home with her.

Bradstreet's report shows that trade is not quite so good as it might be at this time of year, but as everybody seems to have all they can do, it doesn't make much difference.

Fish and Game Commissioner Z. T. Sweeney has authorized the statement that he will give $10 reward for any information leading to the arrest of any one who is a violator of the game law.

New York had its first snow storm of the season Sunday. The mountains in the northeast part of the state were white with snow. There was a heavy snow storm in northern Michigan Saturday.

It is pretty hard for some of the girls to decide whether that Illinois woman who, at the early age of twenty-one, has lost two husbands and just married a third, is a subject for sympathy or envy.

Mrs. Judd Bennett, of Crown Point, a former resident of this city and a teacher in the Plymouth schools seventeen years ago, visited Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. J. A. Gilmore and other friends here.

James Swadley, of LaPorte, has sued his wife for divorce on the ground of abandonment. She was converted to Dowelism and left her husband to go on the New York crusade, notwithstanding his objections.

Jason Rhodes, Schuyler Rhodes, Frank Babcock and their families left Monday for Cameron, Wisconsin. They expect to take the homesteads on the Chipeway reservation which will be open for settlement in November.

Just as we are recovering from the shock of the announcement that fashionable men have taken to wearing corsets, the news comes from New York that an effort is being made to introduce high-heeled shoes for men.

Hon. Daniel McDonald is attending the state meetings of the various chapters of Masonry in session at Indianapolis this week and the grand lodge of Red Men. He stands as high in all these orders as any man in the state.

An old bachelor wrote the Minneapolis Tribune, inquiring what a "millinery opening" is. The reply was: "It is an unseemly rash in one's income which extends from the top of his wife's head to the bottom of his pocketbook."

Mrs. Maude Leedy, who died a few days ago had some life insurance in the Western and Southern Life of Cincinnati. She had paid only $3.50 and her father, D. H. Bowles has received $84. He wishes to publicly thank the company for their prompt payment.

Ed Stillson, of Crown Point, a former resident of this city, visited here several days this week. It was his first visit here in twenty-five years and the improvement of the town was much greater than he had expected. He says Plymouth is one of the prettiest little cities he ever saw.

A frightened partridge flew through one of the large plate glass windows in H. G. Thayer's residence Sunday afternoon. It struck the glass with such force that the glass, one fourth of an inch in thickness, was smashed to pieces and the bird fell dead on the floor of the sitting room.

Lagrange and Ripley counties were the only ones in the state that escaped typhoid fever in September, according to reports received at the office of the state secretary of health, but it is believed that not even these really escaped. In all there were 166 deaths from this disease, and 307 from consumption.

The West township Sunday school convention at Pretty Lake church Sunday afternoon and evening, was largely attended and all the papers and discussions were interesting and helpful. The musical part of the program was good. Mr. H. S. Grube was elected president and Miss McFarlin secretary for the ensuing year.

Ed Kuhn, of Warsaw, was a Plymouth visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Johnson is visiting her son, Dr. Johnson, at Tippecanoe this week.

A pair of woman's shoes made in Lynn, Mass., to establish a record for rapid shoemaking, required fifty-seven different operations and the use of forty-two machines and one hundred pieces. All these parts were assembled and made into a pair of shoes ready to wear in thirteen minutes.

One of our bachelor residents was asked why he did not get married. He replied that his observation led him to believe that when a woman marries a man, she not only takes his name but also almost everything else he has. His prejudices against women are too great to be easily overcome.

It is now said of Prof. Langley's flying machine which came to grief on the Potomac last week that theoretically it is all right, the failure having been due to some mechanical defect which prevented its successful operation. This is very like the cases of appendicitis in which the patient dies, notwithstanding the operation is said to have been successful.

An Indianapolis justice of the peace had the distinction of marrying George and Martha Washington a few days ago. But of course this George was not the father of his country, although he may have a large family, for this was his fifth matrimonial venture and Martha's second. Both are colored.

Roy McClure, better known as "Kid Vaughn," the pugilist of St. Louis, and Miss Marjorie Bedenkop, the pretty Elkhart girl, formerly of Burdick, who eloped from Elkhart two weeks ago, were caught in St. Louis Saturday. A decoy note written by detective Lee Killian led to the arrest of McClure at that city on the charge of abduction.

Amos T. Whitman, of Michigan, who stole the Jones team in Green township and was captured near Hillsdale, Mich., entered a plea of guilty before Judge Bernetha Monday afternoon and was given an indeterminate sentence of one to fourteen years. He was taken to Michigan City at noon Tuesday. Whitman is 62 years old and it is said has borne a good character. His wife, a very nice appearing woman was here and accompanied him to Michigan City.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Mrs. Jennie Erwin, wife of William Erwin, died at her home in Bourbon Tuesday morning, Oct. 20, at 1 o'clock. She was one of the most widely known and useful women of Marshall county and many hearts in other sections of the country will be sad when the news of her death reaches them. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock p. m. Wednesday.

BALL & COMPANY

THE MAMMOTH DAYLIGHT STORE MICHIGAN & LAPORTE STS.

Stylish Fall Millinery

SO MANY nice things have been said about our Hats this season—even the papers going so far as to give us a writeup on our Opening display—that we therefore cannot pay too high a comment on our beautiful showing this fall. Our trimmer in charge is the best that ever filled a position in this city, and every hat carries a prominent feature of refinement. You will find our prices lower than any exclusive millinery store, for this reason, if for no other: our position to buy cheaper than other dealers, and our dry goods department furnishes us so many materials and trimmings that otherwise we would be compelled to carry as regular millinery stock.

Street Hats from 75c to $3.50; Trimmed Hats from $1.50 to $15.00; Caps and Tam O'Shanter's from 25c to $1.00; Baby Bonnets from 25c to $1.50; Ostrich Plumes from 25c to $6.00; Veils from 50c to $1.25; A nice selection of Ornaments, Birds, etc., at all prices.

Men's and Boys' Shoes

THIS DEPARTMENT is a growing one; every customer is a pleased one—our liberal guarantee goes with every pair of shoes. Our fall stock bids a winner to every shoe buyer. It contains all the different leathers from the cheaper and medium grades up to the best and very finest. Boys' Shoes at $1.00 to $2.50; Men's Shoes, $1.25 to $4.50; Men's High-Top Waterproof Shoes, $3.50. A few odd lots and sizes to close out cheap. Big stock of Rubbers, Rubber Boots, Felts and Overs. Don't miss us for the best footwear. We can please you in both style and price.

Buy Overcoats Here

THE TIME for Overcoats is almost here. And when the time comes for you to buy we want you to see our line. Some of the very best values the market affords—new, stylish coats in blues, blacks, Oxfords, in smooth and rough cloths, all made up in the latest styles. Long and medium long Coats are the thing this season and we are satisfied that with our wide range of styles and prices we can please you.

A nice selection of Boys' Overcoats in all sizes from three years up. Fine medium long Coats with velvet collars, Chinchilla reefers—good goods and well made—at moderate prices. Bring the boy here this Fall.

Winter Underwear

ABSOLUTELY the best values yet. Men's Fleece-Lined Underwear—shirts with double back and front—a splendid garment—at $1.00 the suit. Men's Fine Heavy Ribbed Underwear at $1.00 the suit. Boys' Fine Fleece Underwear—the best we have yet shown—at 50c the suit, and many other equal values.

BUGGY SALE

TEN PER CENT. DISCOUNT FOR THIRTY DAYS

I have a car load of A-1 grade Ligonier Buggies to close out within thirty day and to do so I offer a discount of TEN PER CENT on all cash purchases or good bankable paper.

These consist of SURREYS, PHAETONS and SINGLES—best of trimmings; top levers; high backs; finished in broadcloth, red and green car plush and plain leather. Rubber steps on every buggy. Manufacturer's guarantee good for one year. Remember these are not a cheap lot of buggies, but the standard Ligonier make.

North Michigan Street, PLYMOUTH. T. E. HOUGHTON